

ing through life with no thought for the safety of our dear ones.

"To those who are not professing christians I will say, 'This is for you. If you have this concern for your loved ones, you ought to be concerned about your soul.'

"We are going to hold an after-meeting, and these are some I want to say. I want you to stay as individuals. I want the church members who are concerned in the salvation of souls to remain. I want church members who are not leading faithful christian lives and who are willing to confess the errors to remain. I want those who are not yet members of any church who have a spiritual earnestness about themselves to remain."

At the After Meeting.

Most of the vast audience remained; but while a few were passing out the choir sang "I'm Praying for You."

Mr. Mills read the after-service by asking all members of the church who had been absent since the last meeting to come to the front. About 1,000 persons came to the front. "I believe there is a mighty power in the prayers of God's people," said the evangelist, "and I believe some of these erring ones will be brought to grace. It is said that where two or three are gathered together in my name, I will be there. How much more potent the spirit when there are two or three thousand." He related an instance at a meeting where seventeen women asked that their husbands be prayed for. Their wishes were granted and every one of them was brought to grace. He also related an illustration to show the mighty influence of the prayers of God's servants—one of them told of the conversion of a young Sing Sing convict by the repeated requests of his mother for prayer for him.

He called for persons to stand up and ask for prayers for relatives and friends. From all parts of the auditorium came requests for prayers for sons and daughters, for husbands and fathers, for sisters and brothers, for companions and kinsmen. The evangelist called upon church members who felt that their lives had not been right to arise, and many stood up, confessing their weakness and acknowledging their willingness to do right. A few minutes were then devoted to prayer; the Rev. John T. Heritage, R. Van Rensselaer, A. M. Gould, T. G. Smith and others led the service. The evangelist prayed unitedly to lighten the burden upon the hearts, and asked that those who doubted might make a complete surrender to God.

Confessions of Sin.

The choir sang "Come, Sinner, Come," and during the hymn the leaders distributed cards, upon which those who were not already christians and wanted to come to Christ were asked to write their names and addresses. These persons were asked to come to another service, and while the larger part of the audience was passing out the choir sang, "Just as I Am Without One Sin."

More than 700 persons staid to the third service. Mr. Mills told them there was only one way for an erring church member to get right—to forsake sin and turn to God. The evangelist told them if they would do this simple thing, their sins would be forgiven—fornication, your sins and return to God. He urged them to give up the things they know are wrong, and come to God in a contrite spirit. Say what Saul of Tarsus said, "Lord, what wilt thou have me do?" I have power from Almighty God to say unto you that if you will do these three things he will cleanse you in his mercy. He asked each to pray, "Lord I give myself to thee, take me as I am, and the response rose from 600 throats.

The revival prayer for each and everyone, and the congregation sang "Take Me As I Am." Words of encouragement were spoken by many of the pastors of the city, among them being A. M. Gould, T. G. Smith, J. E. Smith, John T. Heritage, James Thompson, S. L. Hamilton and Sanford H. Cobb.

Personal confessions were called for and scores stood up to acknowledge Christ for the first time. At the close of the service more than 500 cards had been collected.

Sunday Services.

The following meetings were announced by Mr. Mills at last night's service: A Sunday school workers' meeting in the Division street Methodist church at 7:45 tonight. Two young people's services tomorrow in Lockery hall, one at 10 a. m. and the other at 3 p. m. Union services will be held in the evening in the First Presbyterian church, in Calvary Baptist church, and in the Pauline Avenue Methodist church. A service for men will be held in Lockery hall at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, to be conducted by the Rev. B. Fay Mills. A service for women will be held in the Fountain street Baptist church to be conducted by the Rev. Ralph Gilman, Mr. Mills' assistant. Monday there will be two special services preached in Lockery hall—one at 3:30 o'clock on "Entire Conversion," another at 7:30 on "The Kingdom of Heaven on Earth." Tuesday will be a day of special prayer, and services will be held all day. At 8 a. m. neighborhood prayer meetings will be held in various houses. At 9 a. m. prayer meetings will be held in all the churches. At 10 a. m. 3:30 p. m. and 7:45 p. m. Mr. Mills will preach in Lockery hall. Sunday evening a collection will be taken for the poor. The money given will go to the Associated Charities society for distribution. Mr. Mills wishes to meet the male members of the choir and other men singers this evening in the Y. M. C. A. building at 8:30 o'clock.

WOMAN'S MEETING.

A Consecration Service Led by Mrs. J. C. Floyd.

At 2:30 yesterday afternoon a woman's meeting was held in the lecture room in the Lockery building. The room was crowded by the leading women from all churches and the services were conducted on a plan calculated to impart strength to the revival efforts. This meeting, in charge of Mrs. J. C. Floyd of the Second Street M. E. church, and much religious enthusiasm was manifested among the large audience. Miss Louisa presided at the piano, and the program was "Just as I Am Without One Sin," and the remainder of the hour was devoted to prayer and religious testimonies.

AFTERNOON MEETING.

Discourse on Revival—Collections to be taken for Charity.

The 3:30 meeting held by Evangelist Mills in Lockery hall yesterday afternoon was largely attended, nearly every seat on the first floor being occupied.

THE ROOM WAS HEATED COMFORTABLY FOR THE occasion in marked contrast to the day previous. The services were opened with prayer by the Rev. E. V. Van Kier of the Second Baptist church. John P. Hillis, the musical director, sang "Who Will Follow Jesus There," and upon invitation the audience joined in the chorus.

Mr. Mills read scriptures from James XIV, after which he made his announcements for today and Sunday. There will be no services in Lockery hall today, but this evening there will be a conference of Sunday school workers addressed by Mr. Mills in the Division street church. Following the conference Mr. Mills read verses No. 144, "Jesus, Visit Thy Plantation," and the hall was made to ring with the voice of the great audience as the hymn was sung. Mr. Mills' text was taken from the eighth and ninth verses of Jeremiah xiv. After reading the verses he said he would ask his hearers to remember only the portion of his text which reads: "Why shouldst thou be as a man as a story; as a mighty man who cannot save." This particular passage was taken as the foundation of the sermon. The discourse dealt upon the subject of revival from the time of Christ and John the Baptist. He said if Christ and John were not revivalists they were nothing. The church of Christ was borne from a revival. Mr. Mills described some of the great revivals of the world and expressed a belief that many present would live to see a great national revival, not only for America but for the world. Mr. Mills said he had not been in this beautiful city a great while, but he had been enough to know that all is not rightness here. He said that in high places and in low places, in the streets, "Why can't we have such a revival here?" he asked. Mr. Mills answered that the work of the churches had not been acceptable to Christ; their faces have become hidden from Christ by sin. He believed that God is ready for a great revival here if the people will engage in earnest, faithful prayer. He believed that will give a great revival to this city if the people are ready to be baptized. "If you want the Holy Ghost and anything else you will be baptized with it," said Mills, while speaking of the responsibility of his hearers in the effort to awaken a revival. He beseeched the ministers to warm up and lead the unawakened to Christ. The sermon was followed by prayer by Mr. Mills asking for an outpouring of the spirit at the evening meeting to follow. The closing hymn was sung by the audience standing, after which the congregation was dismissed with the benediction. After the meeting had been dismissed Mr. Mills called a meeting of the executive committee, and it was decided to take a collection at all of the union meetings to be held next Sunday night for the Charity Organization society.

IT HITS THE MASSES.

Some Strong Remarks by a Well-Known Man.

Evidently He Knows Well What He Is Talking About.

And We Only Trust That His Advice Will Be Followed.

The majority of people who are ailing do not call themselves exactly sick. They are run down in vitality of blood or their nerves have become weak or their stomachs, bowels, liver or kidneys are out of order. They feel a general being weak, nervous, tired, out of sorts; they do not sleep or eat well and wake mornings with dull head and languid feeling.

Such persons are not in reality sick, but they are in a fair way to become so if they neglect themselves. These feelings and symptoms show that the system is out of order and common sense should indicate that something must be done to prevent these conditions running into absolute disease.

A young man of our acquaintance, Mr. Louis Dahl, of Andover, Mass., speaks strongly upon this subject and speaks also out of his own experience.

"I have been troubled greatly," he said, "with pains through the chest and heart, causing constant distress and difficulty in breathing. After taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for a short time, I commenced to steadily improve, and now I am entirely cured. My nerves are completely under control and the pains about my heart and difficulty of breathing have entirely left me. I consider myself entirely cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura. I recommend it highly to persons suffering from similar complaints."

We can heartily endorse what Mr. Dahl says. If you are troubled in any way, use at once Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is purely vegetable and harmless and it will put you in good health, give you sound sleep and make you strong and vigorous again.

Physicians prescribe and recommend it in all such cases. It is the discovery of a famous physician, Dr. Greene, No. 35 West 14th street, New York, who is undoubtedly the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted in all cases without charge, personally or by letter.
